

Rheumatism!

How is rheumatism recognized? Some have said—

Rheumatism is a dull pain.
Rheumatism is a sharp pain.
Rheumatism is sore muscles.
Rheumatism is stiff joints.
Rheumatism is a shifting pain.

All have declared—Rheumatism is Pain.

Sloan's Liniment applied:—

The blood begins to flow freely—the body's warmth is renewed—the congestion disappears—the pain is gone.

TO TRY BOND VOTE AGAIN

Another Road Election To Be Called In Casey County.

Middleburg, Jan. 6.

Petitions for a vote on the road bonds are being circulated throughout the county, and the question will soon be before the people again. The election will be held in March. By that time the roads cannot be travelled at all, and we are wondering how the people are going to get to the polls.

One of the meanest spells of the grip any mortal underwent had its measly clutches on the writer and we were not able to be about and enjoy the late holidays as we would have liked, but we are told that they were the quietest ever seen here before. There was but little drinking, and no disorderly conduct indulged in by anyone.

We regret to lose our townsman, S. J. Bell and his excellent wife. Mr. Bell has sold his property here to Greeley Lutes, and will likely move at once. Sam is a good fellow to have around. He puts things to moving. On coming here he purchased the old water mill that had been an eyesore to the town for several years, remodelled and put it in working order. He then installed a light plant that is doing a good business. Mr. Bell is an all-round benefactor. Pete Swann, a gentleman of color, and perhaps as 'every one as could be found in the state, is in jail at Liberty as a result of a little shooting match he and Draft Elliott, another gentleman of color had just before the holidays. They are said to have fired 13 shots without leaving any "wolf sign," as our old friend, Mack Royalty use to put it.

F. W. Wall came near being killed Saturday, while working at Garner's Mill on Hillis' Creek, east of Yosemite. He was running the cut-off saw when a piece of slab was caught by the saw and hurled against his stomach with such force that he was thrown back against some timbers of the mill shed. He thought he was dead for a while, but to the surprise of all present he began to breathe again. He had quite an ugly gash cut in his head and other injuries.

J. C. Fogle went to Danville Thursday, and returned Monday. He is one of the executors of the will of his mother, Mrs. Martha Fogle, who died at Danville two weeks ago. The river was up most of last week and the mails were disappointed, as is usually the case here at this season.

Stockholders' Meeting.

A Card to Owners of Rural Telephone Lines

We are anxious to see that all lines owned by other parties and connected with us are kept in such condition as to furnish efficient service. Where the owners of rural lines are responsible for their upkeep, we want to co-operate with them.

All lines require a thorough overhauling occasionally if the best service is to be obtained. We recommend that every line connected with us be overhauled at least once a year, and that at least one experienced telephone man assist in this work. The cost of this work when divided among all the patrons of the line, makes the amount paid by each man small, and this cost will be more than offset by the improved service.

If the owners of rural telephone lines in this section are experiencing trouble with their service, we will appreciate their talking the matter over with our Manager or writing us fully. We will gladly do what we can toward helping you improve the condition of your line.

KIDD'S STORE.

Cleon Camden bridged some of the canyons and filled enough of the gulches of the turnpike to permit Santa's rough sledding over this section of his Christmas circuit. Notwithstanding, he was compelled to lighten cargo by heaving overboard big dumps at roughest grades.

Virgil Hogue and wife will remove to Cincinnati.

Riley Edwards and family will probably tenant their cottage.

The few shipments of tobacco from here have brought pleasing prices and growers are cheerily hurrying crops on the breaks.

Sobriety and sanity have supplanted our old-time booze and bacchanal brutalities of yuletide carnival and the atmosphere of civilization is exhilarating and inspiring to even the toughs.

Day before Christmas was a red-letter anniversary at Stapp's Seminary. The principal, Mrs. Virgil Hogue, is a woman of rich magnetism, the idol of her pupils, who probes for their aptitudes and inspires them with delight in study. An interesting, most appropriate program had been arranged for the day. The house was packed and proud parents were delighted by their first revelations of unsuspected talents of their little ones. A Christmas tree, studded with gifts for pupils, and a generous, savory hand-around for audience concluded one of the happiest, most inspiring incidents in lives of our school children. The law of compensation insists a sour shall be served after every sweet, and gloom of soon rendering our superior, most lovable teacher to more fortunate patrons is depressing.

Only the superesthetic of our Four Hundred and Fifty think Woodrow and Mrs. Galt should have played the limit of conventions at the altar, but they are measurably consoled by news that our President's daughter, Madame McAdoo, had set seal of her approval on female Beau Brummels flourishing walking canes on their "airings."

A young prodigy called for a first reader. Merchant handed him a primer with assurance, "Here is what you want."

"I reckon I know what I want, I've done looked at every picture in that primer."

Same kid of five years, was overheard asking his sweetheart, "are you reading a serial in a popular magazine?" which he had heard discussed.

And Teddy resents Woodrow's recommendation of preparedness which he (Teddy) approves. How prone are mediocres to ape megalomaniacs. Woodrow can plead precedent, for Billy Bryan charged Teddy with sneaking a few of his policies, which some one had suggested to the preacher.

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months."

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.
